

Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC) at VMI
NROTC SCHOLARSHIP STUDENT SCHEDULE OF EVENTS
Friday, 16 August 2024

Scheme of Maneuver: NROTC Scholarship students and family members shall report to Kilbourne Hall, Room 2089 at 0900 on Friday, 16 August. All students shall report in presentable civilian attire to receive a "Welcome Aboard" brief by NROTCU VMI Commanding Officer and subsequently have the opportunity to ask questions. Following the brief, students will depart the room and students will complete their NROTC scholarship paperwork. Upon completion of scholarship-related paperwork, the Commanding Officer will administer the Oath of Office to the scholarship students (witnessed by their family members). The Midshipman Oath of Office officially activates the NROTC Scholarship. As a final event, students will conduct VMI activities on 17 August, in accordance with the VMI schedule.

Timeline of Events:

- 0900-0945: NROTC Scholarship students shall report to Kilbourne Hall, Room 2089.
- 0945-1145: Students will complete scholarship paperwork, Room 2089. Family members will attend a question/answer session.
- 1200-1215: Midshipman Oath of Office, Kilbourne Hall Foyer.
- 1215-1300: Lunch for Midshipman and Families, Room 5020.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the NROTCU VMI Commanding Officer at (540) 464-3375.

T. L. HOMIAK
 Commanding Officer
 NROTCU VMI