PROTOCOL VIP QUARTERS
REGULATIONS AND POLICY FOR USE

1. Purpose: The purpose of this regulation is to establish authorized uses for the property known as the Protocol Quarters (further known in this document as VIP Quarters) as well as to prescribe policies and procedures for such use.
2. Authority: VIP Quarters is the property of VMI. The Protocol Office has management oversight responsibility for the VIP Quarters.
3. Administration: Maintenance and upkeep will be coordinated by the VMI Protocol Office in the same manner as other properties owned by VMI. In deference to the furnishings, historic artifacts, and to the overall safety of the property, smoking is not permitted inside the VIP Quarters.
4. Authorized Uses and Users:
 - A. VIP Quarters located at 402 VMI Parade
Description – Two-bedroom duplex with full living room, dining room and kitchen.
 - B. These Quarters are for the use by distinguished visitors on an “overnight” basis but may extend for a period not to exceed three (3) consecutive calendar days. In special circumstances, approved by the Chief of Staff, the length of stay may be extended. Guests may include, but are not limited to guest lecturers, special invited visitors to VMI, dignitaries (to include major development prospects and donors), and members of the VMI Board of Visitors.
 - C. Priorities for the accommodation of these guests will be as follows:
 - a. Superintendent invited guests
 - b. Members of the Board of Visitors
 - c. Corps Speakers and guest lecturers
 - d. Individuals receiving VMI or Agency awards
 - e. Instructors or trainers to the Institute
 - f. Transitioning employees on a short-term basis – (1 to 4 days only).
5. General Use Policies
 - A. All use of VIP Quarters will be coordinated and scheduled through the VMI Protocol Office at (540) 464-7784. Keys must be picked up between 0830 – 1630 hrs. Monday through Friday as directed by the Protocol Office.
 - B. Check out time is 0900. Check in time is 1500.
 - C. The sponsoring department will be responsible for a guest’s visit picking up and returning of keys, familiarizing the guest with the quarters, and

- ensuring the guest is given any pertinent information concerning their itinerary. If for some reason the guests will be checking in after business hours and the sponsor is not available to meet them at the quarters to let them in, then the sponsor or someone in that department will need to contact VMI Police to let them know that they will be needed to assist in letting your guest into the VIP Quarters. It is incumbent upon the sponsor to explain to the guest the procedures. That procedure is as follows: When the guest arrives on Post they will need to call (540) 463-9177, which is the local dispatcher. The guest must tell the dispatcher their name and that they need VMI Police to let them into the VIP Quarters. VMI Police will let them in as soon as possible. The VIP Quarter key will be on the dining room table. The sponsor should also alert VMI Police in advance that such a call will be coming. The sponsor should provide the guest's name, approximate time of arrival, and in which quarters they will be staying
- D. The refrigerator will be stocked with one day's worth of juices, water, soft drinks, and coffee. Any additional requirements are the responsibility of the hosting department.
 - E. Catering will be the responsibility of the individual or group using the facility. The coordination of meals will be the responsibility of the sponsoring department as well as the clean-up of meals. There is to be NO food left in the refrigerator; however, unopened beverages provided by the Protocol Office are to be left in the refrigerator.
 - F. At any event at which alcohol is to be served, the event participants will comply with the VMI Alcohol Policy and all applicable laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. In the event VMI cadets are authorized to be present, they will not, under any circumstances, be served or partake of alcoholic beverages, even if they are deemed to be of legal age under the laws of Virginia. There will be no exceptions to this rule.
 - G. Use of VIP Quarters is expressly reserved for those special visitors listed above. Any requests for an exception to these rules to permit persons outside the list of authorized users must be presented to and approved by the Chief of Staff. These will only be approved in rare, limited occasions as these quarters must be available on short notice. The sponsoring/requesting party will be responsible for these guests, to include costs and any damages. An appropriate room charge will be paid to defray all costs to VMI for these visitors.
6. Charges: At the conclusion of each scheduled event held on the property, the property will be thoroughly inspected by a representative of VMI and damages noted. The sponsoring department or individual is responsible for any damages or other abnormal wear or tear.
7. Prohibited Uses: The following uses are deemed inappropriate for VIP Quarters and will not be authorized:
- A. The VIP Quarters will not be used as temporary housing for newly arriving members of the faculty and staff while they are seeking accommodations in Lexington or the surrounding area.

- B. The overnight presence of children under the age of 12 will not be permitted. Young guests above that age may stay overnight in Protocol Quarters when accompanied by an authorized parent or guardian.
- C. VIP Quarters will not, under any circumstances, be used by cadets. Cadet presence at VIP Quarters is prohibited except when such presence is specifically requested at an approved function.
- D. VIP Quarters will not be used by alumni or members of the community at large for
